For such a short time unusual interest is being displayed in the Gazette's subscription contest. Quite a few nominations have been received and many others have signified their desire to take part in the campaign by telephoning their nominations to the contest manager.

All realize that the campaign will be short and sweet and that there is no time to be lost in hustling for subscriptions.

The offer is liberal and attractive and it is expected competition for the two Ford Touring Cars will be in full swing by the middle of next week and increase from day to day right up to July 2, the closing date of the campaign.

For the convenience of those who wish to take part in the campaign, the contest manager will be at the Gazette Office until nine o'clock tonight. Come in and get your supplies and ask questions about anything you do not quite understand about the contest.

Up until June 16, 75,000 extra credits will be given for each, and every $10 worth of subscriptions turned in. This is why you should do your best right up to June 16. After June 16 not as many extra credits will be given for the subscriptions.

The Whatever may be Lone said for and against Voice. George Harvey's first speech at the Court of St. James, his worst enemies will have to acknowledge that he at least, almost alone in this Administration, has the gift of saying something definite which cannot be interpreted in a hundred different ways.

Who knows where the Harding Administration stands on the League of Nations? The more Mr. Harding speaks, explains, clarifies, modifies and shifts, the less is known of his real intentions with reference to the League and world policy. The more notes Mr. Hughes writes, one note putting representatives on international councils and another in effect taking them off, the more involved the puzzle becomes. The more "peace resolutions" the Republicans of the Senate frame and pass and the Republicans of the House frame and ponder, the darker the pathway to real peace looms before a bewildered public.

But not so with Colonel Harvey. He, single-handed and single-tongued of them all, knows what the purpose and policy of the syndicate of "best minds" is going to be. "Finally," he said at the dinner given by the Pilgrims in London, "as you know, the question of American participation in the League came before the people and the people decided against it by a majority of 7,000,000 out of a total vote of 25,000,000," and then adding, "Anybody could see that it follows then inevitably and irresistibly that our present government could not without betrayal of its creators and masters and will not, I assure you, have anything whatsoever to do with the League or with any commission or committee appointed by it or responsible to it, directly or indirectly, openly or furtively."

Good, plain-spoken English fit for the King's Court.

Any grammar school boy can understand, after that, that the real purpose of the Harding Administration is to throw the League of Nations overboard, bag, baggage and begatelle.

At last the syndicate of "best minds," through the mouth-piece ordained to occupy the spare room right over the front porch at Marion during the campaign was out in the open with a flat-footed declaration against the League and all its works. At least that would have been the natural conclusion to follow Colonel Harvey's speech.

But lest the increasingly amazed American public should be able to take the Harvey speech at its face value and consider the nail driven in the League of Nations coffin, during the very hour that Colonel Harvey was speaking he received instructions which he was compelled to announce, that he was "authorized and instructed by his Government in the event of a meeting of the Supreme Council being held to consider the Silesian proposition to represent in that meeting the President of the United States."

Now the Supreme Council is not indirectly or furtively but directly and openly responsible to the League of Nations for any decision which it may reach with regard to Silesia and the plebiscite held there by the League of Nations. It is a distinctly League of Nations party and Ambassador Harvey will have to eat his words and sit in on it.

The Importance of Healthy Kidneys

In the removal of waste material from the body, the kidneys are called upon to perform a very important duty. The failure of these marvelous and delicately constructed organs to properly do their work means retention in the system of poisonous matter. This poisons the system, and if permitted to remain results in severe backache, headache, torpid liver, constipation and eventually Bright's disease. Warner's Safe Kidney and Liver Remedy, a combination of herbs and other healthful ingredients was discovered about 50 years ago, and its value in strengthening the kidneys and liver was at once appreciated. Today it stands as one of the standard remedies in the treatment of diseases of the kidneys and liver. Many persons suffer from diseases of the kidneys and liver, and make you feel that life is really worth the living.

There should be better liaison between the "best minds" in Washington and the "best mind" par excellence in London.

Salvation Army men and women of the city will begin a systematic canvass Monday in connection with the appeal made by the Salvation Army in this city for its annual budget. The work of this organization stands out for itself and needs no introduction to the public. Their splendid work during the world war and there excellent work on a peace time basis is sufficient in itself to warrant generous donations from all. The motto of the army "A man may be down but is never out" stands out prominently in the minds of all red blooded Americans. Let everybody help this organization obtain their desired quota of $6,200. If every adult in the city gave 33 cents the amount desired would be obtained.

Curtail Expenses

Postoffice Here Will Not Be Enlarged Owing to Action of Congress

Owing to the fact that the present Congress will not make any more appropriations at this session for public buildings the bill introduced in the House by Representative Moore providing for the erection of an addition to the Alexandria postoffice will not be acted on at this time. The bill recently was introduced by Representative Moore, but was laid over because of this fact.

Zion City Skirts And Hosiery Suggestive of The Follies

Chicago, May 21.—Any reform to be effective should begin at the bottom and work up.

The Zion City elders realize this row to their dismay. Some time ago they framed an ordinance prohibiting the appearance in public of any adult woman who did not completely conceal her neck and arms. Sleeve lengths and the exact height of the dress at the neck were carefully prescribed in inches.

But the ordinance, it is realized now, is weak at its strategic points. In their concern over the shoulders and arms the City Fathers appear to have neglected the legs.

Zion's women, with the perversity of their sex, have taken advantage of this loophole in the law to appear on the street in costumes that from the knees down suggest the Follies. The hosiery display is such as to cause the elders to gasp and the younger men to rejoice exceedingly.

General Overseer Voliva has thundered against the skimpy skirt and has set to work some of his pet verses, but all to no avail. The women are safe within the law.

A SPECIAL SERIES OF SERMONS

On Sunday evening at 8 o'clock, the pastor, Rev. Dr. E. B. Jackson, will preach the first of a series of sermons on "Some Types of New Testament Church Members." The special topic will be: "The Man Who Got Out of a Crooked Business." The chorus choir of the church under Mr. Starnell, causes continual comment and congratulation. Large crowds wait upon the services of the church.

IN MEMORIAM

ELROY—In sad but loving remembrance of our dear mother, ELLA ELROY, who departed this life May 22nd, 1920.

At the bedside of our dear mother, Night by night, and day by day, We watched her loving hands grow thinner, And saw her slowly fade away. In the graveyard quietly sleeping, Where the flowers gently wave, Lies the one we loved so dearly, In her sad and lonely grave, A loving one from us is gone, A voice we loved is still, A place is vacant in our home, Which never can be filled.

121-1p. By her devoted children.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank our many friends and relatives, and especially the employees of the Fruit Growers Express for the kindness shown and the beautiful floral tributes upon the death of Mrs. H. A. Smith, on May 8, 1921-1p. By the family.

BRITISH EXPEL IRISH CHIEFS IN PLAN TO END TERRORISM

London, May 21.—Six leading Irish men have been deported by the British government to Ireland where they will be interned under the provisions of the emergency powers act, as a direct result of the week end of terrorism which seriously disturbed the government's plans for conciliation and negotiation.

The deportees included Brian O'Kennedy, secretary of the London branch of the Irish Self-Determination League.

In the meantime, Scotland Yard and the local police of cities and towns throughout England have been busy raiding Sinn Feil centers both in England and Ireland.

At Dublin reports of an ambush at Kilmenea tell of sixty republicans attacking a force of twenty crown troops, who dug themselves into an entrenched position, and defeated the assaulting rebels. The police lost one man killed and one wounded. Emerging from the trenches the police drove the republicans into open country, killing four and wounding four.

At Cork three former soldiers, Daniel Hawkins, Edward Hawkins and John Sherlock, were kidnapped, rushed to a quarry in the suburbs, and shot. Edward Hawkins is dead and Sherlock is dying.

MODERN RIP-VAN WINKLE BACK AFTER 25 YEARS

New York, May 21.—When "Andie" Fuerpinger, of Pearl River, N. Y., came marching home again a few days ago his wife did not recognize him. Still as R. Van Winkle discovered, 20 years makes changes in any man, and Fuerpinger was away for 25.

dinner near the open door when the old man came up the walk. Her four children are grown and she has four grandchildren. She always said that some day "Andie" would come back, but it was 20 years ago that she stopped searching hospitals and advertising in the newspapers for him.

Fuerpinger left home in 1896, because he was sick of his job, and in poor health, his wife said.

Fuerpinger has a job in Middletown, Conn., where he has been for 17 years. He wants his wife to go there with him. When she hesitated to sell her two and a half acre place in Pearl River and go to Middletown, her husband went down on his knees to her in tears, she said. Mrs. Fuerpinger refused to give him a definite answer at once, but she promised to make up her mind by Memorial Day.

Gloucester, N. J., May 21.—Gloucester police today recovered their fifteenth stolen automobile for Philadelphia. For their work in recovering machines valued at many thousands of dollars, they have received one $5 reward from one of the owners.

The last machine, a sedan, valued at $3,000, was found by Chief of Police Van Meter, in Ocean City. It was being used by Harry Busson, a jitney driver, who declares he traded his old machine for it to a Gloucester man. The auto, which he traded, was also recovered at Westville. The sedan, according to the Philadelphia detectives, is owned by Abraham Tansman, 244 South Fifty-second street, Philadelphia, and was stolen April 20.

AUCTION SALE OF APARTMENT HOUSE PROPERTY

By virtue of a deed of trust, dated October 17, 1919, recorded in Deed Book 69, page 340, of the land records of the City of Alexandria, Virginia, from S. G. Loeffler, Jr., to the undersigned Trustee, default having been made in the payment of one of the notes thereby secured, the undersigned Trustee will, at the request of the holder of said note, offer for sale, at public auction, in front of the Royal Street entrance of the Market Building, on Tuesday, the 14th day of June, 1921, at TWELVE O'CLOCK NOON, all that lot of ground, with the improvements thereon, situated in the City of Alexandria, Virginia, known as the Old Hospital Property, and bounded and described as follows, to on the board of such schools, they may severally be filled with women to the number of three as the maximum for the time being. There was discussion on this subject during which Mr. Minor, of Richmond, moved that the whole subject of women's representation in the various fields of church service be referred to the committee on canons. But the motion of Dr. Dillard finally prevailed that the whole subject be referred to a committee of seven with the bishops as chairman to report at the next council.

DEFER ACTION ON APPOINTING WOMEN

The proposal to admit the heads of church schools in the diocese to the privilege of seats in the councils was referred to the proper committee to report at the next annual council. The council will meet next year in All Saints' Church, Richmond, of which the Rev. J. G. Downman is rector.

Mr. John R. Zimmerman, of this city, resigned from the Standing Committee of the diocese on account of his increasing years. He has faithfully served the diocese as a member of this important committee for years and his place will be missed by his friends on this board. The new lay members on this committee are Messrs. Gardner Booths, of this city, and Principal A. A. Hoyton, of the Episcopal High School. It is a matter of congratulation that this part of the diocese is honored by their appointment to this official position.

The friends of Mr. Arthur Herbert in the council were glad to welcome him as the lay delegate from St. Paul's Church of this city. The new rector of this church, the Rev. Percy Foster Hall, was present at the sessions of the council.
